

OLE DAMSGAARD

Head of Secretariat

Northern Periphery and Arctic Programme

Ole Damsgaard has been Head of the Joint Secretariat for The Northern Periphery and Arctic Programme since 2013. The programme is funded by the European Commission and nine partner countries.

He has previously been director of NORDREGIO (2005 – 2013) in Stockholm, Sweden. NORDREGIO is a research institute that serves the Scandinavian governments and regional authorities concerning regional development questions. From 1994 to 2005, Ole Damsgaard was director of the Danish Town Planning Institute.

In addition, Ole Damsgaard is lecturer of European Spatial Planning at the Technical University in Zurich, Switzerland and has been a member of numerous national and international expert groups concerning spatial planning and regional development.