

ALISON LECLAIRE

Senior Arctic Official of Canada

Alison LeClaire joined Global Affairs Canada in 1987. Her professional experience since then includes overseas assignments in Brazil, Sweden and, most recently, in Geneva as Canada's Deputy Permanent Representative to the United Nations at Geneva.

Ms LeClaire worked on environmental issues for three years early in her foreign service career, including two years on the Arctic Environment Protection Strategy (AEPS), just prior to the creation of the Arctic Council.

Ms. LeClaire has worked on a variety of areas in Global Affairs, including bilateral relations with China and Mongolia, policy planning, human resource management, and corporate services.
